

School of World Music and Dance Presents "Sangeetha Siksha"

Unique Weekend Workshop on Voice Culture Care & Cure and easy approach to creative singing offered by

Carnatica Brothers, KN Shashikiran and Ganesh
March 25 - 27, 2011

Shree Sathyanaranaya Swamy Devasthanam
473, 475, 479, Los Coches Street
Milpitas, CA, 95035

Workshop Summary: An opportunity to acquire a better singing voice, overcome inhibitions in music learning, enjoy music and make your learning process fun; innovative techniques to improve your creative skills in ragam, kalpana swarams, neraval, etc., daily vocal warm-ups and more! Certificate of participation will be provided.

Who Can Attend: Open to anyone irrespective of training or background.

Workshop Schedule:

March 25

Inauguration (by Kala Iyer) and Honoring of Bay Area Music Teachers 7.00 pm - 9.30 pm
Lecture/demonstration and open house on voice care & cure

March 26

Group session: Voice techniques I (building stamina, range modulation etc) 9.30 am - 11.00 pm
Group session: Creative singing 11.15 pm - 1.00 pm
Individual Counseling (gurudakshina welcome) 1.30 pm - 4.30 pm
Performance by Bay Area talent 4.30 pm - 6.00 pm

March 27

Group session: Voice techniques II 9.30 am - 10.30 am
Group session: Creative singing 10.30 am - 11.30 am
Open house 11.30 am - 1.00 pm
Performance by Bay Area talent 1.30 pm - 3.00 pm
Performance by Carnatica Brothers, Srikanth Chary on Veena and Ramesh Srinivasan on Mridangam 3.00 pm - 4.30 pm
Valedictory function/Participation Certificates 4.30 pm - 5.00 pm

Cost: Free for participants; voluntary gurudakshinas /donations are welcome
(tax exempt, supports Hope Foundation)
RSVP requested by March 25

Contact details: 408 821 6557 carnaticamusic@gmail.com knshashikiran@gmail.com vidhya_1@yahoo.com

Packed food will be catered for purchase by Aanjanaya Catering